	Name and Identify What are the main components/elements of the topic/ or the steps /stages of the process	Define/Describe Each feature or component. What is it? What are the properties?	Explain How and Why? Cause and Effect of each feature/ component/ stage	Analyse How are the implications/ impact of this process or the features/ components related? Explain how or why intent is carried out, what relationships between components are there.	Critically Analyse How each feature is beneficial or not even if implied as related to a set criteria. Explain how or why they are + or-.	Evaluate, Justify, Assess Make a judgment on each component based on the implications, has each feature served its purpose? Are they successful? + vs – which outweighs which.
Part B: Sectors of the Australian Food Industry
1. Identify and describe the four sectors of the Australian Food Industry
2. Identify and describe an emerging technology within each of the following areas: Food Production Food Manufacture Food Packaging
3. Identify the sector of the Australian Food Industry associated with each emerging technology identified above.
4. Discuss the risks and benefits of using each of the identified emerging technologies in food production and manufacture

Part C: Industry Case Study
1. Identify the levels of operation and mechanisation within the organisation and describe the types of equipment used within the organisation.
2. Describe the recent research and development the organisation has conducted or been involved in.
3. Discuss the quality assurance systems or processes that are used within the organisation.
4. Explain how consumers influence the products manufactured by the company.

5. Evaluate the companies impact on the (i) the environment (ii) the economy (iii) society.
6. Outline the career opportunities within the organisation.
7. Describe the working conditions of a variety of roles within the organisation.
8. Explain how government policies and legislation impact the organisation						