The Hunger Case:

Case Number: HC05/04/01/3654

Incident: Inadequate access to food

- The world produces enough food to feed all 7.5 billion people.
- Despite this, 1 in 9 people around the world go hungry each day.
- New evidence continues to signal that the number of hungry people in the world is growing.
- Limited progress is also being made in addressing the multiple forms of malnutrition, ranging from child stunting to adult obesity, putting the health of hundreds of millions of people at risk.

The agency I have chosen to investigate is:

Food Equity Detective: Hunger Investigation Department

Investigate the aid agency you have selected to better understand inadequate access to food.

1. Describe your chosen aid agency. Identify whether they help individuals and societies here in Australia or internationally.

/6

2. Discuss the aid agencies role. Include in your answer:

/12

What do they do?

Who do they help?

What specific needs do they meet?

Identify potential issues for and/ or against the aid agency assisting individuals and communities.

3. Investigate the group that your aid agency predominantly helps. Provide 4 or more examples of the circumstances which have contributed to their situation.

/8

4. Identify ways that you can help this aid agency. Provide at least two examples.

/4

5. Brainstorm a variety of suitable nutritious snacks that you could serve to the group your agency provides for. Suggest 8 or more nourishing examples.
